PUPPY CONTRACT

New Owner Agreement

Provide a life-long commitment, safe and comfortable environment, proper medical attention, proper grooming, and responsible care for the puppy. Keep the puppy up to date on vaccinations (primarily DAPP and Rabies), deworming, and flea/tick control.

If at ANY time the new owner can no longer retain possession of this dog, the breeder MUST be notified and given the first option of resuming full ownership in order to find the dog a new home. If returned, the dog must be accompanied with all registration papers and medical records. A refund, if any, may be given at a price determined by the breeder.

The new owner agrees to update the breeder of their dog throughout the course of its life, at least once annually is preferred. This feedback provides the breeder with important information on the health and genetics of their dogs for making proper breeding decisions in the future.

Breeder Agreement

Guarantees the puppy to be of sound health at the time of purchase. A one year genetic health guarantee will be in effect for the first year of the puppy's life. If a concern arises, such as walking issues, hip problems, etc, please contact the breeder to discuss a partial refund given at the discretion of the breeder.

Breeding Agreement

_____ This puppy has been purchased with no breeding rights, intended to be a pet only. The new owner agrees to not use this dog for breeding and agrees to have it spayed/neutered at the age recommended by their veterinarian (typically 6 months to one year old).

_____ This puppy has been purchased with full breeding rights. The new owner is allowed to breed this dog humanely and responsibly.

Signing below adheres you to the agreements proposed in this contract above, as well as agreeing to pay the purchase price of _____ for this puppy.
